Holland Adventure 2019

Adriaan Windmill, Haarlem

Your Host: Arjen Sundman

I will be leading a select group (size limited to no more than 5) of photographers around my home country of the Netherlands this Spring. I love showing off all the pretty spots in Holland as only a local can.

This adventure will include accommodations (shared rooms – we will be hiring an entire house), all ground transportation and most meals.

Amsterdam Gables Reflected in the Canals

Highlights

Zaanse Schans

This is a living museum of windmills north of Amsterdam. It is also located adjacent the Droste Chocolate factory. I only mention it, because if the wind is blowing from the west, you will be tortured while shooting with the smell of dark Dutch chocolate.

Alkmaar This city about 45 mins north of Amsterdam is well known as the base of the Holland Cheese Market. It is often described as a mini Amsterdam.

Stompetoren

This small village in North Holland sports no fewer than five windmills out in the countryside.

Broek in Waterland

This is a super picturesque small village that is basically impossible to drive around in.

Enkhuizen

This is the Dutch city I
We will need to get
this place is stinking

Keukenhof

This is the famous

Amsterdam – At night

What photographer can resist the night scenes around Amsterdam?

Amsterdam – Begijnhof

This is an oasis in the middle of old Amsterdam where you are taken back to the 16th century. It is a nunnery, but we are allowed to walk through parts of it and take pictures.

Amsterdam Canal Boats

Yes it's campy, but an essential part of any Amsterdam visit call home. We'll be doing sunset here.

there about 3 hours before sunset as cute!

Dutch Flower display.

Amsterdam – Rijksmuseum

This is an optional outing to the Dutch Royal Museum. You'll get your Rembrandt on here.

Amsterdam – van Gogh Museum

This is an optional outing to the van Gogh Museum. It is by far the highest concentration of artworks by this famous Dutch Artist.

Amsterdam – Anne Frank Huis

This famous young lady's diary needs no introduction. If you are interested in this item, we need to get tickets way in advance...so please let me know.

Amsterdam – Red Light District

I will be guiding whoever wants to experience this part of Amsterdam through the smallest alleyways. Despite what you might expect, this is not a scary outing at all. It is all very businesslike in Amsterdam. This is a limited photo outing. Photos of the ladies are forbidden and enforced.

Amsterdam – King's Day

The whole reason for the timing of this trip. We'll be walking in very crowded streets! Try to plan for a walk around setup and one or two lenses. I will just use a fanny pack on this day. If the group prefers, we can experience this day in small towns instead of Amsterdam.

Kinderdijk

The lowest spot in South Holland is also the spot where you will find the highest concentration of Windmills in Holland...19! The best shots I have taken here are at sunset.

Afsluiddijk

This is a marvel of engineering. A dike that separates the North Sea from the inland sea of central Holland (the IJsselmeer). It runs 22 miles over what used to be open ocean. It is so big that a full freeway graces one shoulder of the dike.

Amersfoort

A medieval city near our house and near the center of The Netherlands. It has a remarkable amount of old structures intact. It is a feast for the photographer.

Harlingen

We'll be walking around this historic fishing city in Friesland.

Horse Ranch Marum

This is a Friesian Horse facility owned and operated by my family. We'll have a chance to check out what a real Dutch Dressage boarding facility looks like.

Feewerd

This super picturesque house on the canal is irresistible.

Reitdiephaven, Groningen

This colorful development makes for great sunset shots.

This will be the third year I do this trip and each prior year has been fully sold out.
